

What are your biggest challenges in ensuring regulatory compliance?

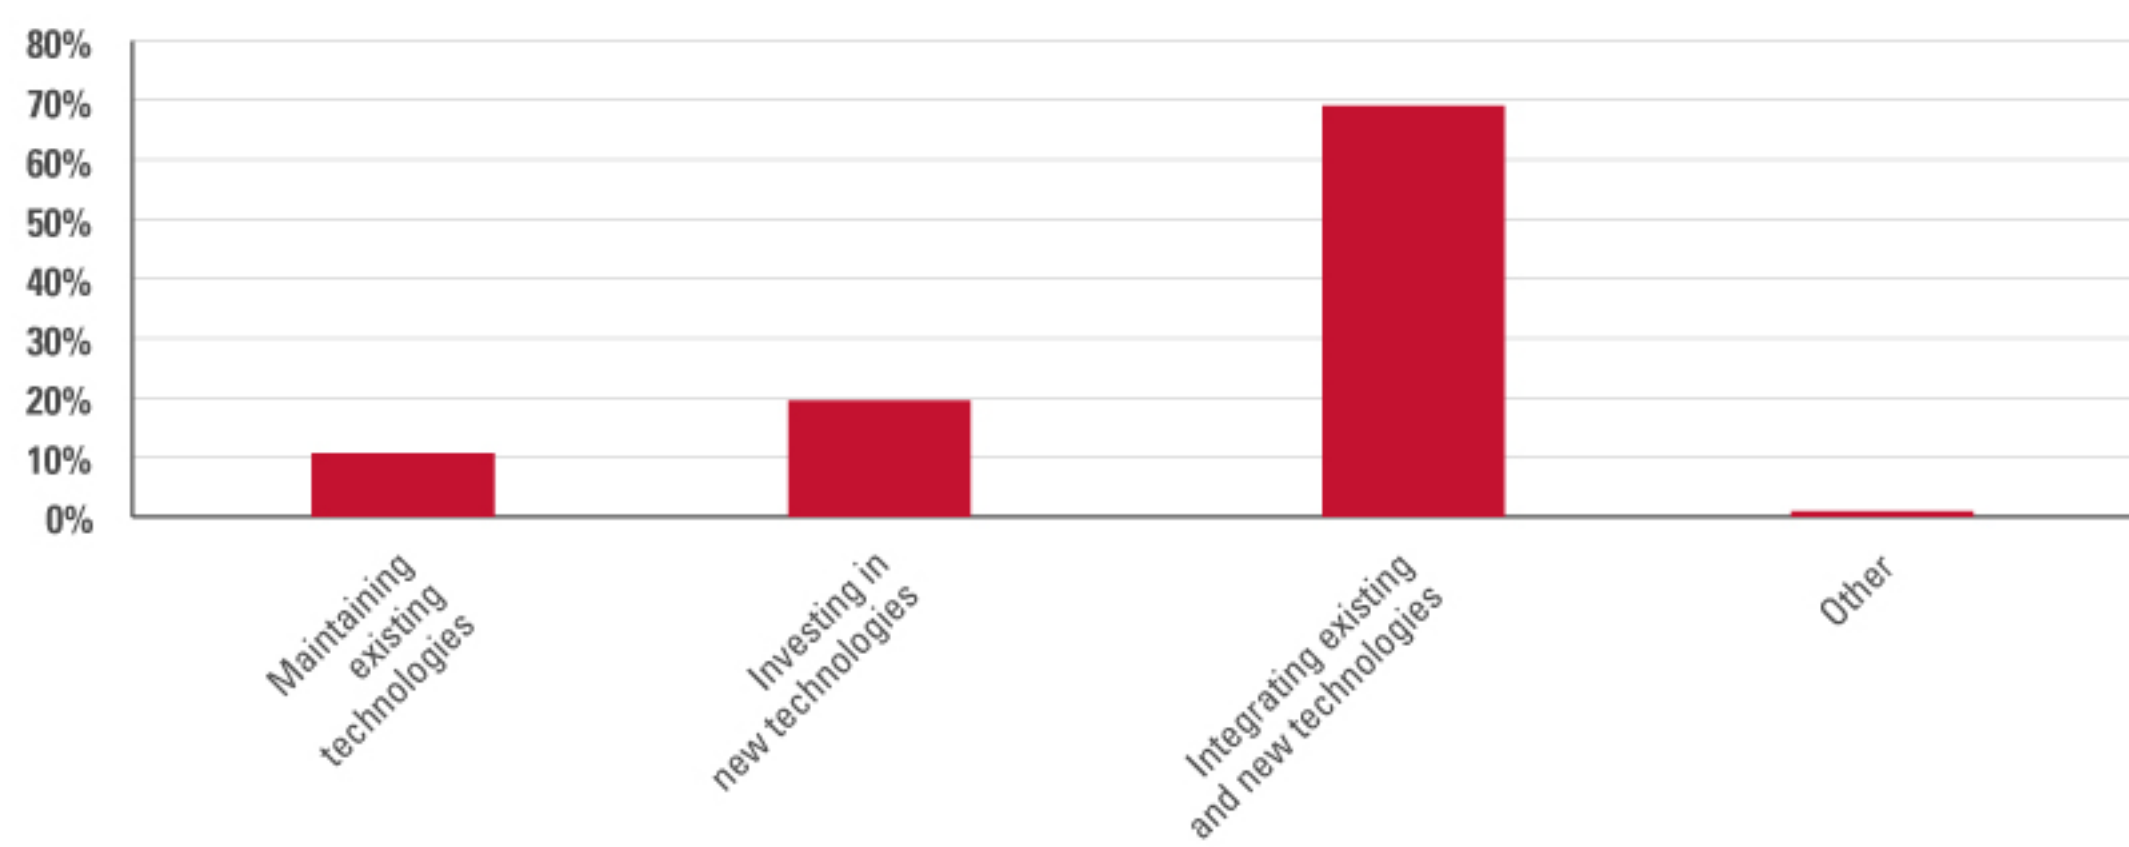

Keeping up with pace of regulatory change is number one compliance challenge

What is your primary technology challenge when it comes to regulation?

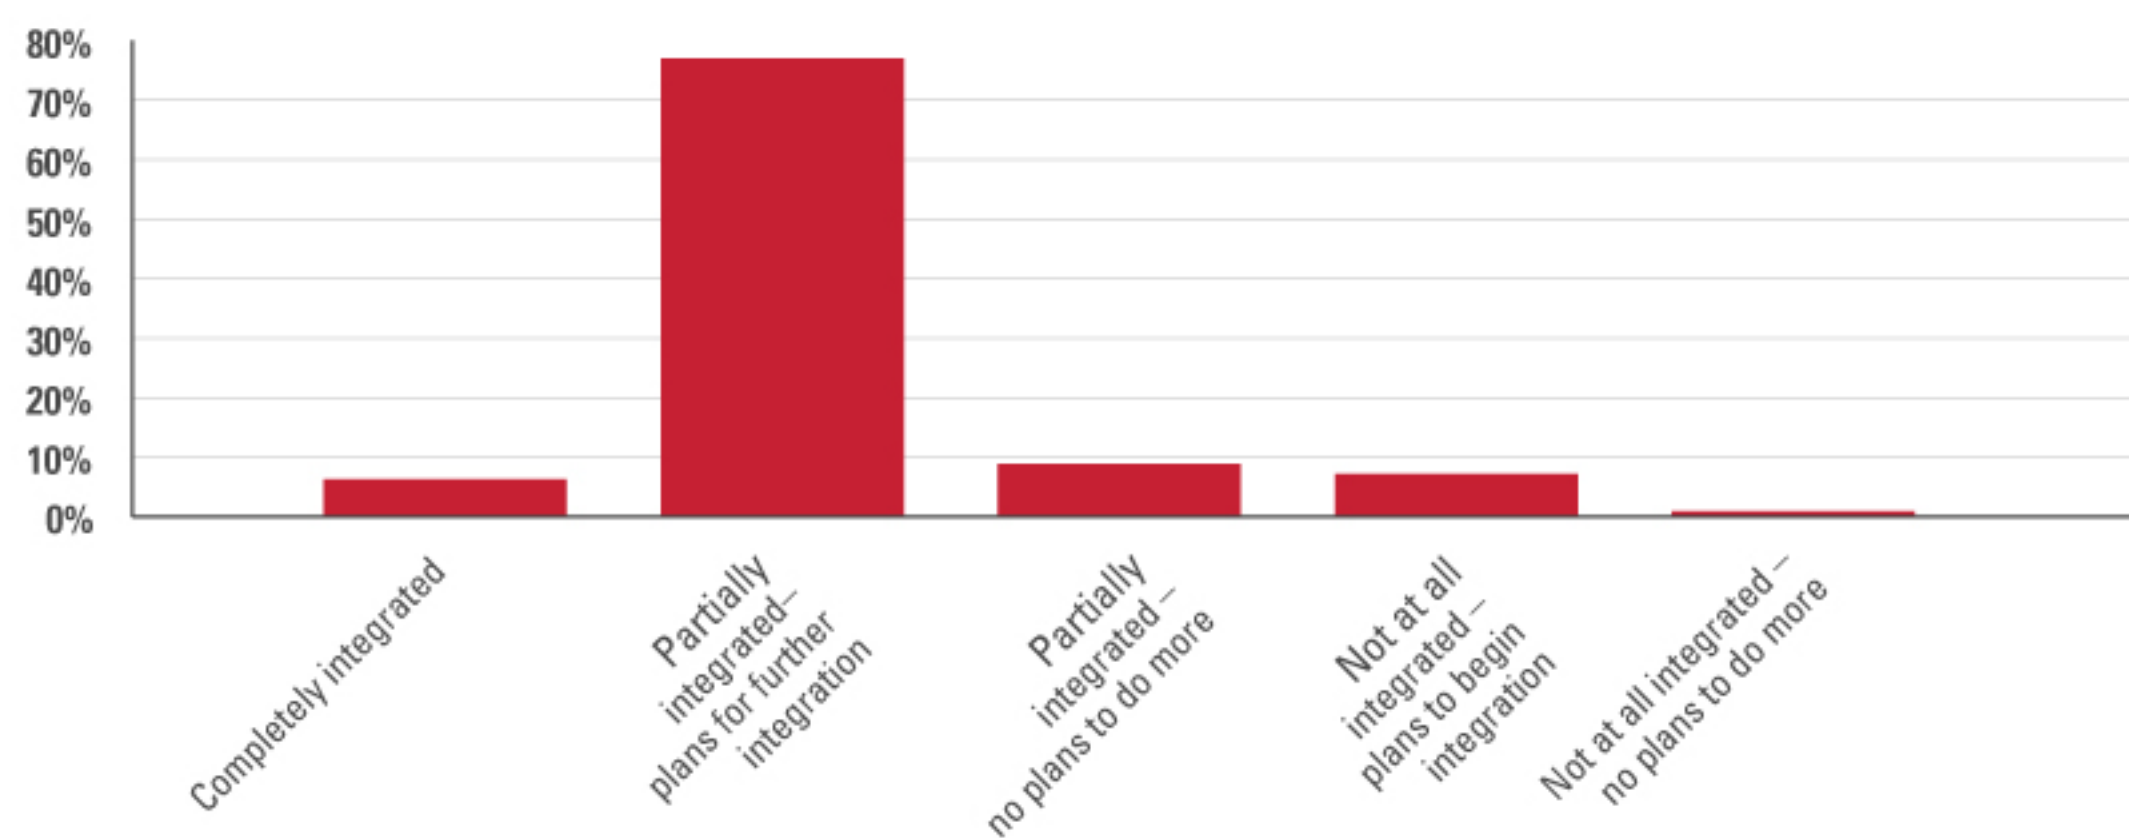

7 out of 10 say integration is biggest technology challenge

How integrated is your regulatory workflow data?

80%

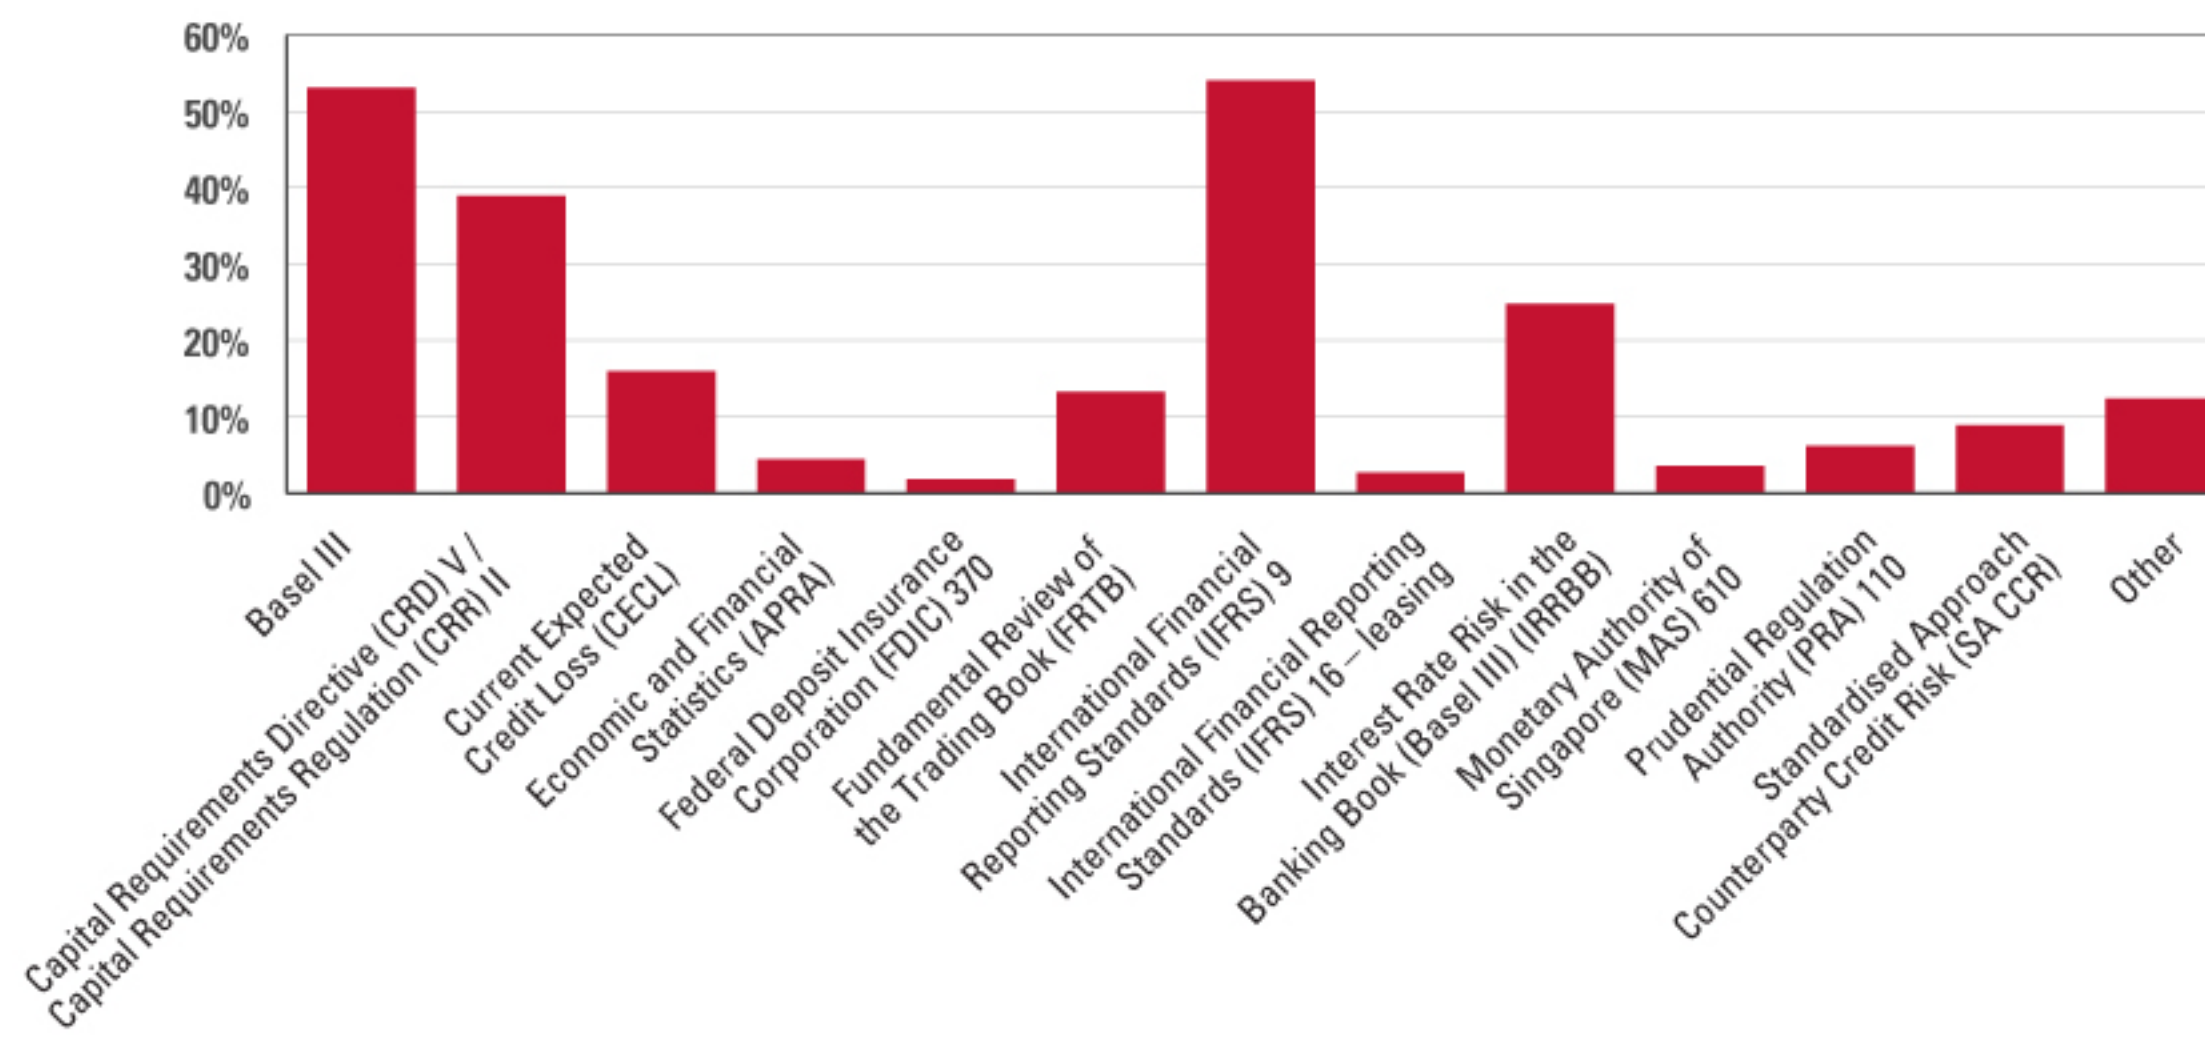

have plans for further integration of regulatory data

Which area of regulation will be your highest priority in the coming year(s)?

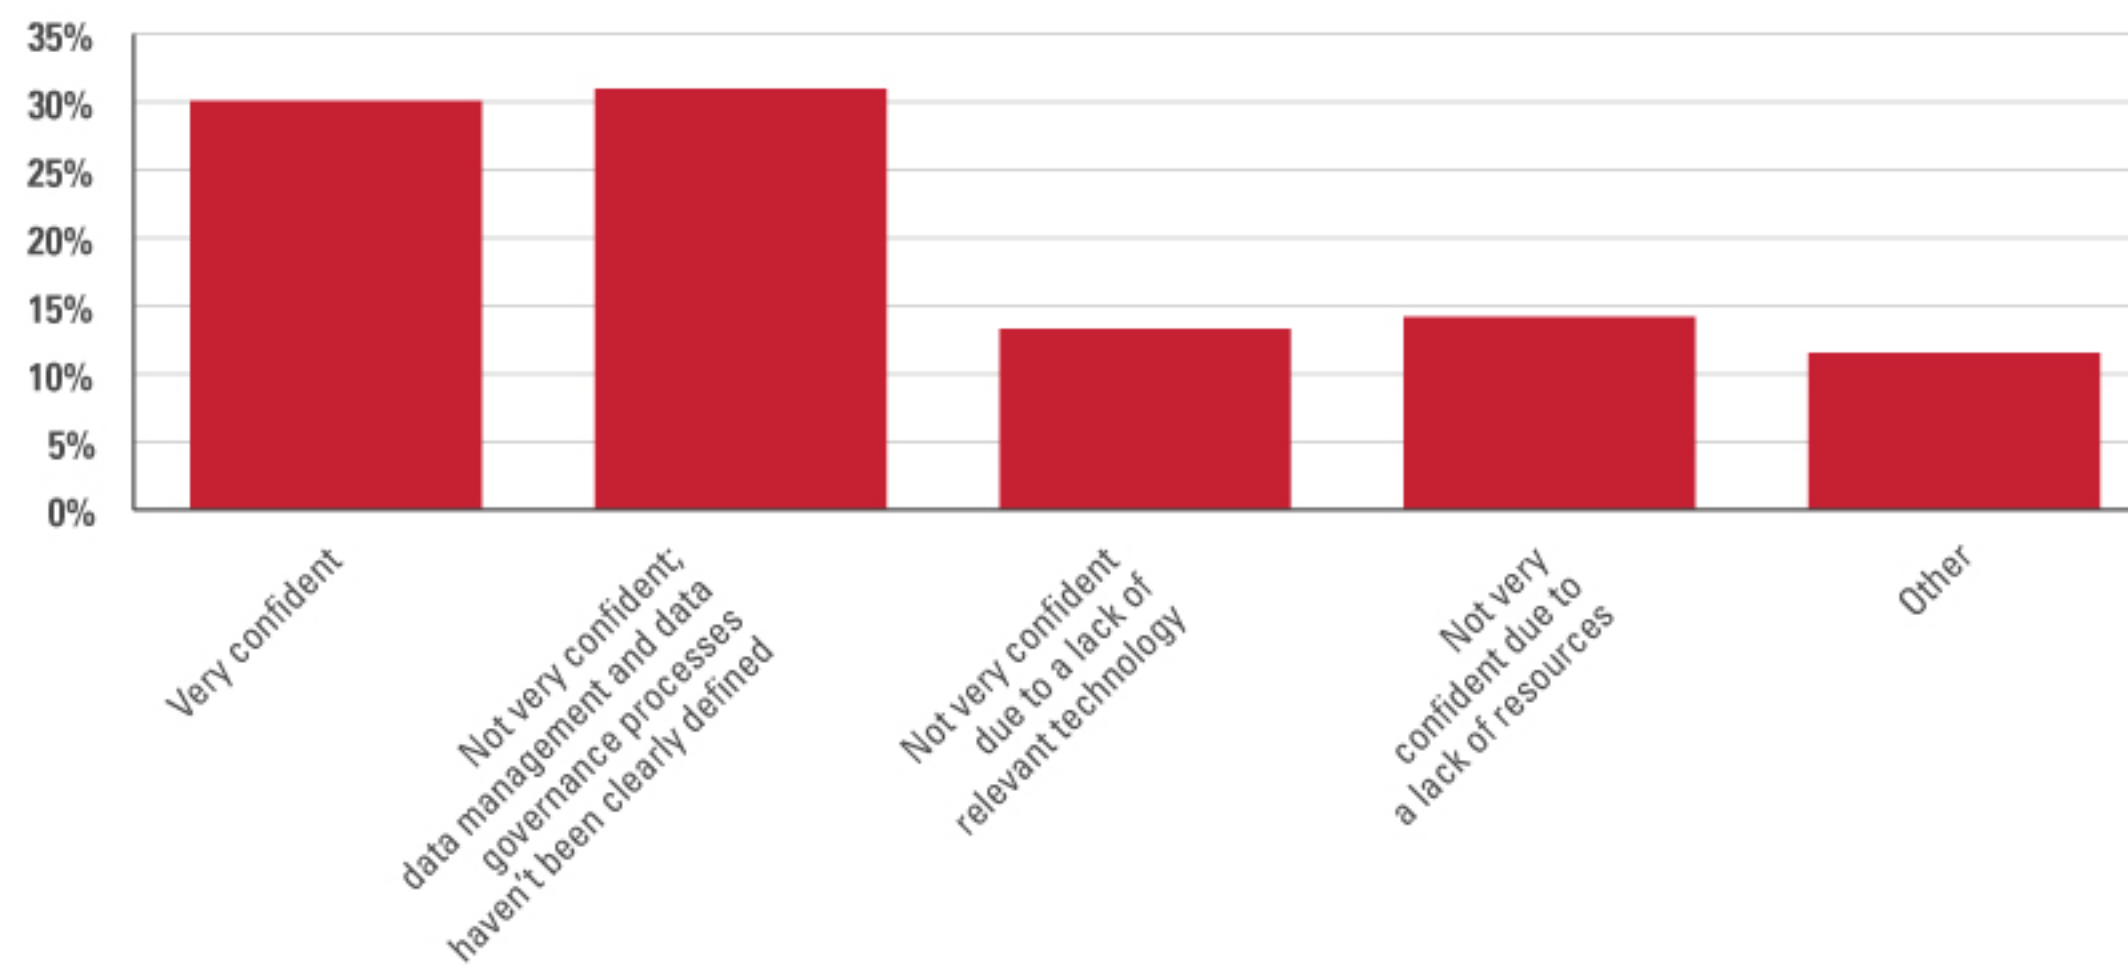

Basel III and IFRS 9 are top two priorities in near future

How confident are you in the quality of your firm's data?

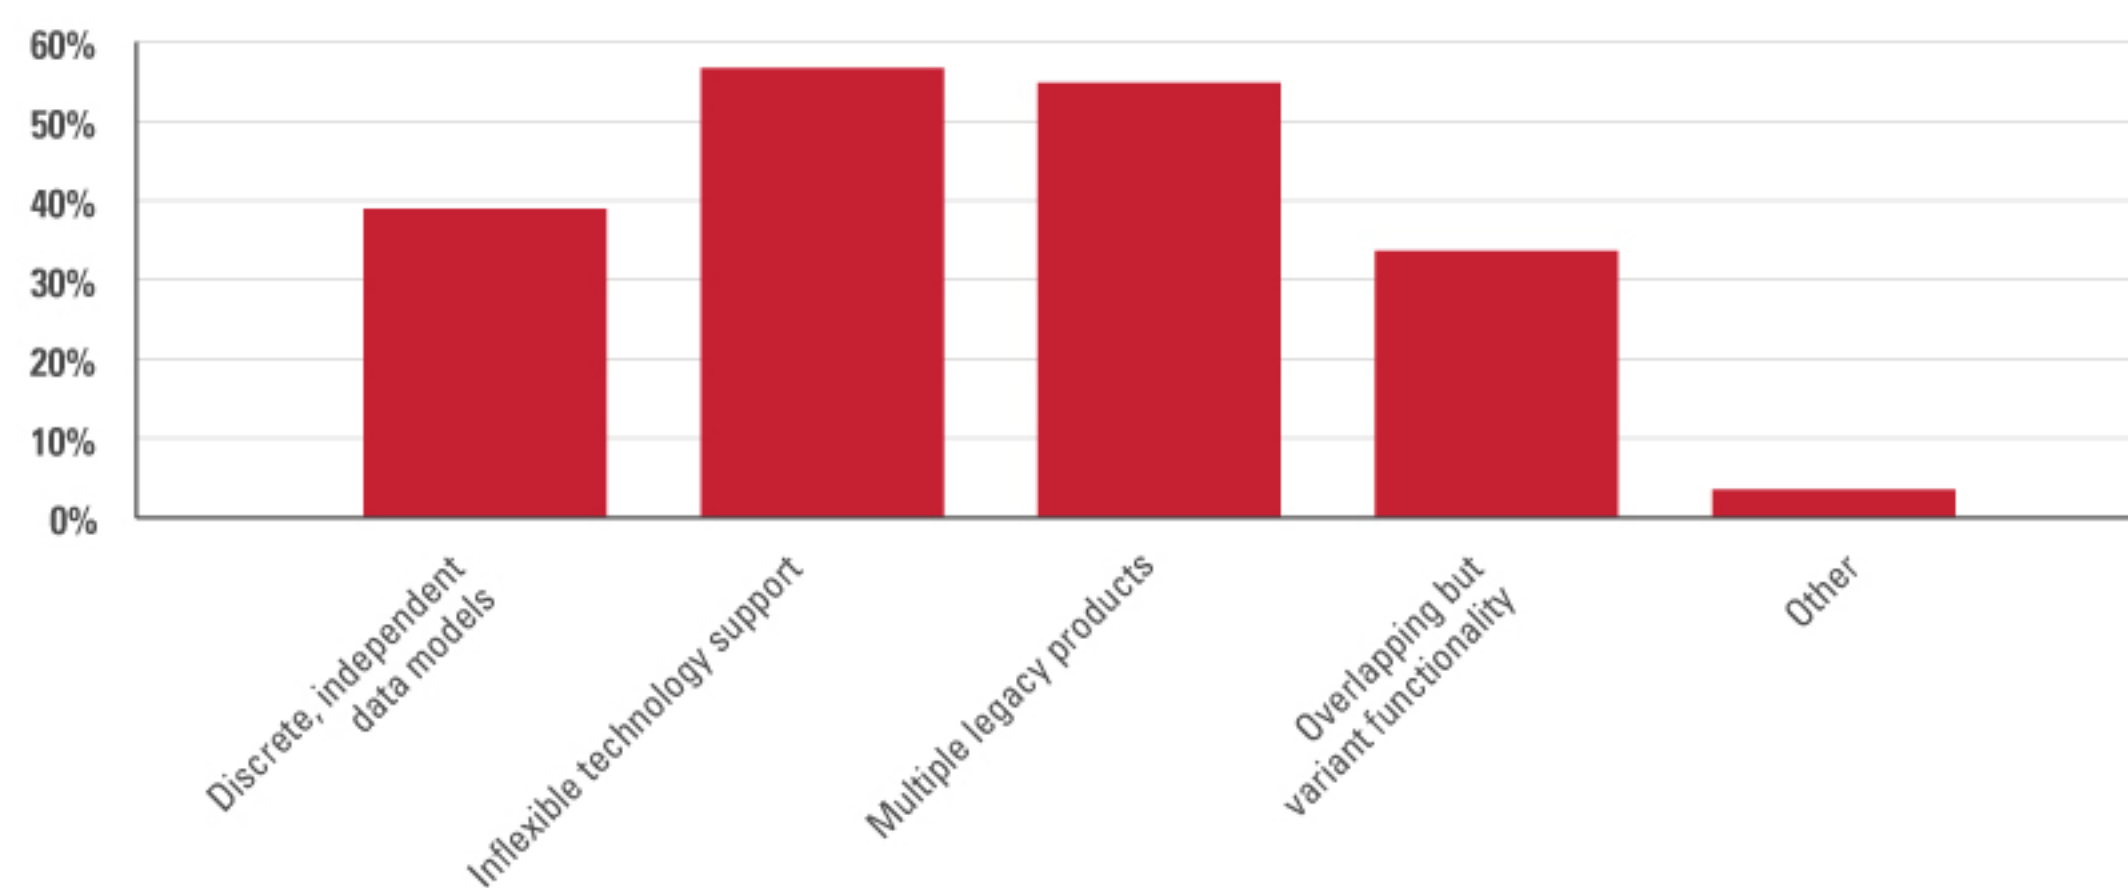

Only one in three very confident in quality of data

Which are your main issues with regards to legacy technology infrastructure?

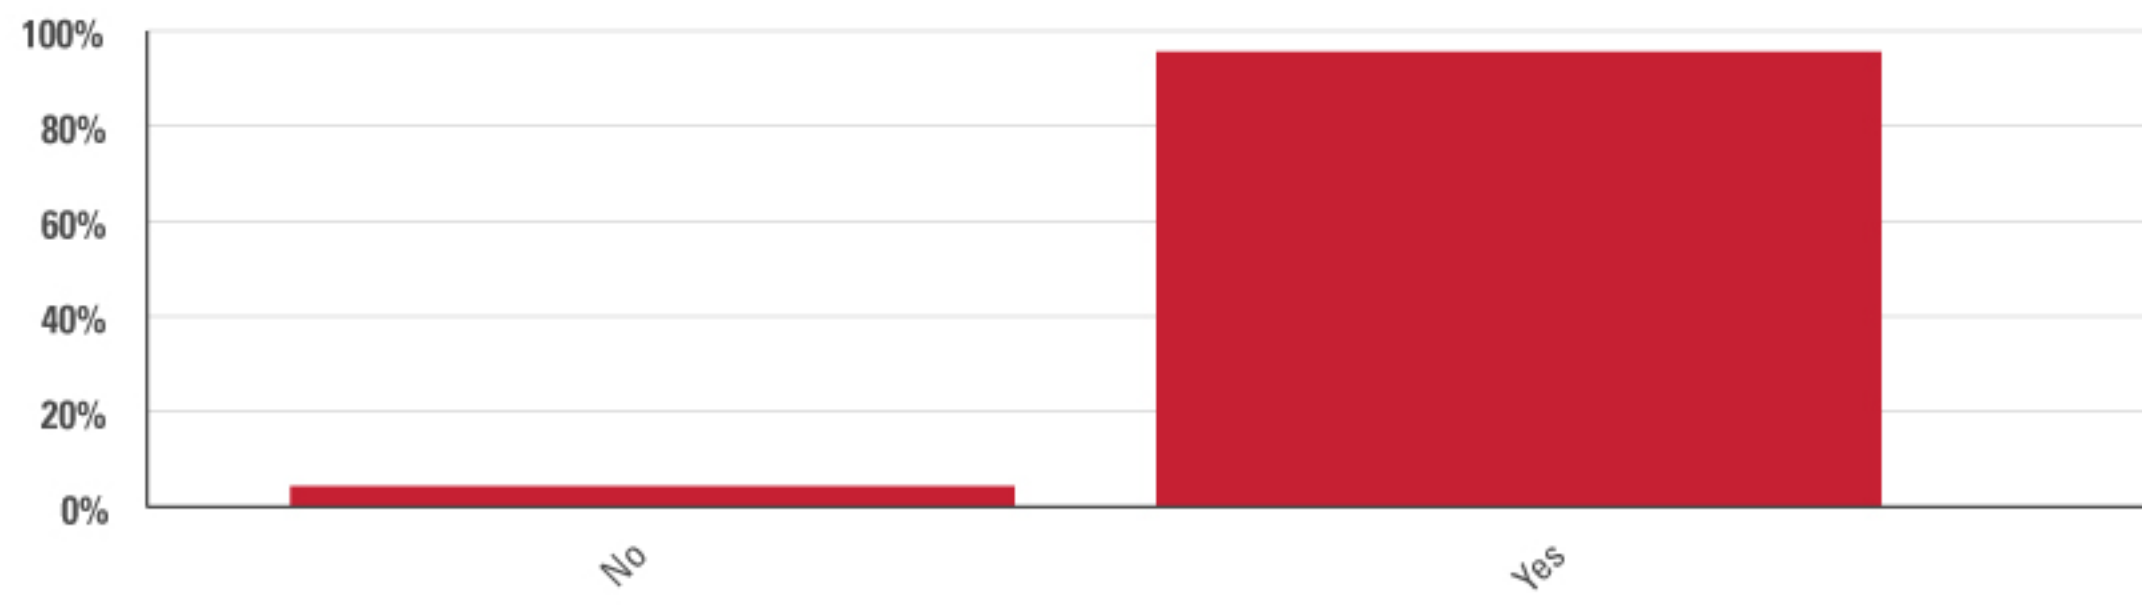

Multiple products and inflexibility are top two legacy infrastructure issues

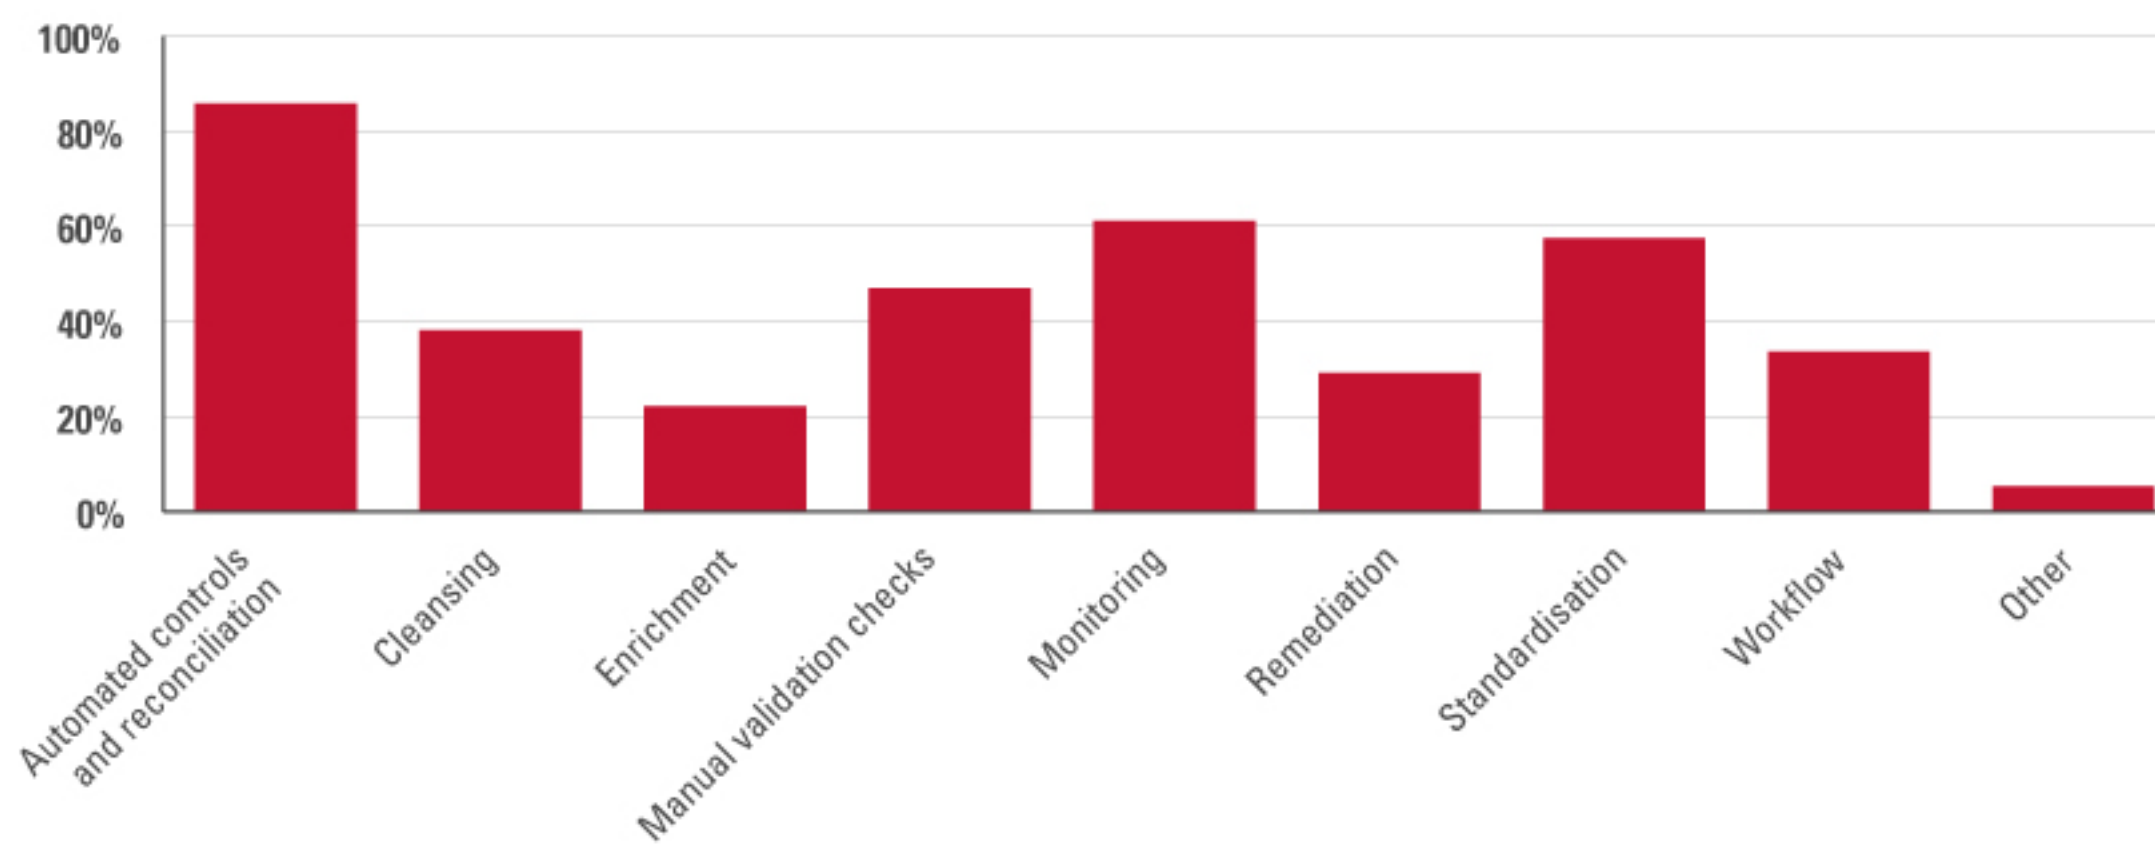

In the long term, is your organisation aiming to integrate data across its workflows?

96% aim for better data integration in long term

Which controls are you going to perform to ensure data quality?

1 Automation is top aid for data quality

What are the main integration challenges you face in your business?

1 Consistent view of data across the business is number one business integration challenge

