Job Description

Our international technical consultants will focus mainly on our clients, taking responsibility for all technical aspects of the customer's project: interface management, reporting and technical platform design. You will translate the client's needs into technical specifications, implement our solutions and assure a constant follow-up and evaluation of the situation.

Your responsibilities:

- You complete the implementation of our product(s) at the customer's site, according to the given standards
- You develop the functional requirements provided by the business consultant(s) thus assuring the client with the best technical set up to use our product(s) (interfaces, reports, close of business, technical platforms)
- You are responsible for the unit testing and for documenting the newly implemented features

- Working in multinational teams and providing technical knowledge on banking and bank reporting
- You work closely together with the business consultant(s) at the client's site.

You will be located at our offices in Germany and working on projects in Germany. You can also be assigned to projects abroad (different countries in Europe and/or Middle East,...).

Qualifications and Skillset

Education:

- A bachelor's degree in Computer Science or equivalent by experience

Essential:

- Strong working knowledge of databases (SQL Server and/or Oracle)
- Strong knowledge of ETL and Data Warehousing technologies along with Data Modelling best practices
- Ability to design mappings for Data Capture, Staging, Cleansing, Transforming, Loading, and Auditing
- An interest in the banking environment
- Fluent in German and English. All other languages are an asset.

Personality / Personal traits

- A good team player, who is eager to learn and to work autonomously in an international environment
- Adaptable to change and feeling at ease in a quickly evolving environment
- Committed to accuracy and completeness
- Willing to travel and to work abroad
- Customer- and service-minded with good communication skills.

Our offer

We offer you a position in a team-based, international, leading financial organization. Within Wolters Kluwer Financial Services, you will find straightforward communication, a fast-paced work environment with challenging projects, interesting career opportunities and a competitive salary package.
